SPRING WORKSHOPS

To better protect the health and well-being of our staff and the students and parents who participate in the SmithGroup Exploring Post program, the 2021 spring workshops will be hosted virtually via live (and recorded) WebEx sessions.

This year's spring session will include our traditional hands-on workshops hosted online by experienced SmithGroup professionals. Each workshop will include a discipline focused design challenge that will enable students to enhance their knowledge in potential fields of interest. Any at-home materials required will be shared via email ahead of the workshop.

Workshop links and information will be shared via email, so be sure to contact Abi or Bryan for access!
